Chapter 1 by Story Wars

It's junior year of high school. Yesterday was my last day of "freedom". These days, there isn't much. No one really is free. Well, at least of homework and lessons. Unlike most people, I don't mind homework. Sure, sometimes it might be hard. But, it's preparing you. In this world, you're not able to prepare and know ahead of time what's going to happen. I mean come on, no one's God. Anyways, I'm kinda hoping this year will be different. Make some new memories, good and bad. Maybe meet some new people too.

OOMF! "Hey! Watch where you're going!", a someone said when I ran into him. "Ummm..." Whoops! I bumped into someone already? Seriously dude?! "I'm so sorry, I ... didn't see you." "Nah dip Sherlock." "What's with the attitude? I just said that I was sorry. Didn't your mom teach you manners?" I didn't wait to hear his response. I sped off into the crowd and became invisible. Or I tried. I can never be invisible at this high school. Want to know why? I'm the principal's daughter.
